Dear Harshitha,

Here's a good reason to smile - we'd like to make you an offer to study with us here at the University of Portsmouth.

At a glance

Course: MSc Construction Project Management, Full Time
Offer: Conditional Offer
Start date: 18/09/2023
Point of entry: Year 1

Conditions: Achieve a minimum of 50% from your undergraduate degree, English language proficiency at a minimum of IELTS Band 6.0 with no component score below 5.5 or an equivalent English language qualification, pass credibility interview, completion of UKVI Student Route Eligibility Assessment, and receipt of a tuition fee deposit or acceptable sponsor letter provided. Successful completion of undergraduate degree, submission of Bachelors full official transcripts along with provisional / degree certificate issued by the University, and one satisfactory reference dated within the last two years

As a condition of your offer you are required to pay a deposit in the amount of £3500. This payment will be deducted from your tuition fee balance at registration. If you made a payment previously, you only have to pay the additional amount to meet the requirement.

More about the conditions of your offer

Whether you need to improve your English before starting your degree or just practice your language skills, apply for one of our Pre-Sessional English (PSE) language courses. All our PSE programmes are accredited by the British Association of Lecturers in English for Academic Purposes (BALEAP) and designed for university use. You'll get excellent support and advice from experienced academic staff, International Student Adviser Team and Learning Development Tutors.

Our pre-sessional courses are designed to help you develop the academic skills you need to progress to a university foundation, undergraduate or postgraduate programme. You'll study for 25 hours a week from Monday to Friday in classes of no more than 14 students, with the same tutor throughout your programme. If you have applied for a course at The University of Portsmouth but have not yet fully met the English language requirement for your academic course, you may be eligible to study a pre-sessional course in order to meet those requirements.

For more information on the pre-session courses available, and the minimum IELTS score or equivalent required, please click here. To apply, please use the 'PSE quick apply' button in your Applicant View.

For more information on English language requirements, please click here.

Accepting your place

Congratulations - we've considered your application and we'd like to make you an offer. If you accept our offer, you'll be on your way to join the next generation of world-leading innovators in our postgrad community.

Please log into your Applicant View to let us know that you want to accept your offer of study.

If you need more information before making your decision, please contact us. Rest assured that we'll keep in touch over the coming months to ensure you're kept informed at every stage of your application.

Fitness to Practise

If you have applied to study a course with fitness to practise requirements, please read this Fitness to Practise information document.

What next

Visiting the university

Want to find out more about the University of Portsmouth and why it's the right choice for you? Join us at a virtual or on-campus Open Evenings, meet with our subject specialists and current postgrad students. Or get to know us better by browsing our Postgraduate Virtual Experience. It's a great source of valuable information - from what postgrad study is like and what our students say, to our industry-standard facilities, where you'll live and life outside study.

Fees and funding

Find out the most up-to-date tuition fees for your course as well as entry requirements and course information.

All offers made by University of Portsmouth to international, EU and EEA students are subject to a deposit of which GBP 1000.00 is not refundable. Please read further details, including any exemptions. Alternatively, you may provide a letter from your financial sponsor (this cannot be a family member or friend). You can make your deposit payment, or provide details of your financial sponsorship, via the My Finance section within your Applicant View. From there you will be able to make an online payment of your deposit (if applicable) or upload sponsorship information. We recommend that you meet the offer conditions and make the deposit payment as soon as possible to confirm your offer in order for you to have sufficient time to apply for a visa and arrange your travel.

All offers made by the University of Portsmouth are subject to checks for criminal convictions, tuition fee status, regulations for students under 18 years of age, Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), fraudulent materials, and UKVI regulations.

Check the different ways you can pay your tuition fees as an international student.

For further information on course tuition fees and any discount you may be entitled to, please see your My Finance tab of your Applicant View. From there you will also be able to upload sponsorship information or make an on-line payment of your deposit (if applicable) and course fees.

Tuition fee

Tuition Fee	£19200.00
Tuition Fee w/ Discount(s)	£17600.00*

*Please note, if you are not eligible for a discount, the figure will remain the same. If you believe that you are eligible for a discount, please contact tuition.fees@port.ac.uk.

Important: Home Office (UKVI) restrictions

We reserve the right to make amendments to any offers in order to meet the requirements set by UK Government policies. The Home Office restricts the total time that students may spend in the UK to a maximum of five years for the majority of undergraduate courses.

If you have applied to study a campus-based course you must complete our UKVI Student Route Eligibility Assessment, which allows us to determine your eligibility to study in the UK under Home Office immigration regulations. The assessment must be completed before your Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) statement is issued, which you will need to support your Student Route Visa application. The questionnaire should be completed within 28 days of this offer email being sent to you.

All offers made by the University of Portsmouth are subject to checks for criminal convictions, tuition fee status, regulations for students under 18 years of age, Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), fraudulent materials, and UKVI regulations. For more information about studying at University of Portsmouth, please visit the help pages of our website or contact us by sending an email to globaladmissions@port.ac.uk.

Overseas representatives

We have a University representative in various countries that can help you apply for a Student Route Visa and provide you with counselling, conduct standard checks, and liaise with us on your behalf.

Remember to print this email if you visit your country representative, or to include it with any correspondence you have with them so they are aware that we have referred you to them. The representative may apply a small administration fee for assisting with your application. Additional charges may apply to optional visa services. View their contact details here.

Living in Portsmouth

Portsmouth is a fantastic place to live and study - steeped in history but with a modern vibe, it's a magnet for major cultural and sporting events. You'll find a huge range of affordable student accommodation to choose from that is located within easy reach of the University.

For full details on securing halls of residence, private housing or lodgings go to our accommodation pages or email us at student.housing@port.ac.uk.

Your first week

Check our website for up-to-date information on our Welcome and Orientation Programme.

All non-UK students can join the airport pick-up and the International Orientation Programme.

If you have any questions about your visa application, please email student-visa@port.ac.uk.

Student Contract

Please ensure you read the Student Contract carefully. The contract sets out your rights and responsibilities as a student, and outlines the obligations of each party to each other. When you accept an offer to study at the University of Portsmouth, you are also agreeing to abide by the Student Contract.

Terms and Conditions

Offers are made on the understanding that you meet the University's Terms and Conditions.

Here to help

If you need more information before making your decision, please contact us at any time.

We'll also be in touch with you over the coming months with everything you need to know about life at Portsmouth and to keep you informed at every stage of your application.

Dear Karthick,

It's great news! Your place to study at the University of Portsmouth is now confirmed. Your course, named above, starts on 18/09/2023.

What to do now

We're looking forward to welcoming you to our island city community. To make sure your induction experience is as easy as possible, take a look at our information for New Students. It includes everything you need to know to make a great start at university.

Making a payment

If you are required to pay a deposit to guarantee your place, please find more information on payments at ways to pay.

Important: Home Office (UKVI) restrictions

We reserve the right to make amendments to any offers in order to meet the requirements set by UK Government policies. The Home Office restricts the total time that students may spend in the UK to a maximum of five years for the majority of courses.

If you require a visa to study in the UK and you have chosen to study on a part-time course please be aware that the Student Route visa for part-time postgraduate courses does not permit any work and does not permit you to bring dependents.

All offers made by the University of Portsmouth are subject to checks for criminal convictions, tuition fee status, regulations for students under 18 years of age, Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), fraudulent materials, and UKVI regulations. For more information about studying at the University of Portsmouth, please visit the help pages of our website or contact us by sending an email to globaladmissions@port.ac.uk.

Overseas representatives

The University has various overseas representatives that will help you apply for a Student Route Visa and provide you with counselling, conduct standard checks, and liaise with us on your behalf. It would be useful for you to print this email and provide a copy of it if you visit one of these representatives, or to include it with any correspondence you have with them so they are aware that we have referred you to them. View their contact details. The representative may apply a small administration fee for assisting with your application. Additional charges may apply to optional visa services.

With best wishes,
